

SLC goals: organization, long-term planning, public speaking, collaboration, and self-reflection

Student: Welcome to my student-led conference.

Student: Mrs. Ambler will be my collaborator; she's here to answer college-related questions with regard to the admission landscape, the application process etc.

Student: During this conference, I'd like to relay my goals with regard to college, and how / when I plan to accomplish these goals.

Mrs. A: Let's talk about the parts of the application

Student:

- Update on grades and next year's schedule

- Update on test results and future test dates

- Essay topics you're considering

- Teacher LOR

Student: Self-reflection

Reference assessments in Naviance "about me" tab (click on the "portfolio" hyperlink to reveal results from your Strengths Explorer and Do What You Are assessments) (click on the "surveys" hyperlink to reveal survey results from junior year). What have you learned about yourself? How might that apply to college?

Student: I'd like to tell you about my goals for college:

- Ideal size of college

- Location

- Majors that interest you

- Colleges on List (any why)

Mrs. A: talk about application deadlines
