

Worley Porter

a Pop-Up Restaurant & Test Kitchen

run by the Colorado Academy Faculty for the Colorado Academy Faculty

+ FACULTY COOKING COLLABORATIVE

On Thursday, April 9th and Wednesday, April 22nd, you will have the chance to participate run Worley Porter, a Pop-Up Restaurant & Test Kitchen at Colorado Academy. These two dinners will give the Colorado Academy Faculty & Staff the opportunity to cook and enjoy a special meal together under the guidance of Paul Worley and Alex Porter.

Invitations for these 4:00 pm – 7:30 pm events will be sent via e-mail on the morning of Monday, April 2. The first 10 people from each division to respond to the e-mail invitation along with the first 6 people who respond from the staff – admission, business, development, communications, operations, administrative – will be the inaugural participants at Worley Porter.

More information will be sent to your Smith Center mailbox in late March. If these are successful, we will do more events in the fall.

To attend one of these two events, you will need to be one of the first 15 people to respond to this e-mail if you are a member of the faculty who is a classroom teacher in the lower, middle, or upper school : one of the first 3 people who responds from the staff (admissions, development, communications, operations, administrative)

5 lower school faculty
5 middle school faculty
5 upper school faculty
3 staff members
1 teaching lab member
1 principal
20 participants